MOUNTAIN MEADOW MASSACRE. Amdavit of Philip Klingen Smith. State of Nevada, County of Lincoln, ss. Personally appeared before me, P. B. Miller, Clerk of Court of the Seventh Miller, Clerk of Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, Philip Khingen Smith, who being duly sworn, on his oath says: "My name is Philip Klingen Smith; I reside in the County of Lincoln, State of Nevada; I resided at Cedar City in the County of Iron, in the Territory of Utah, from A. D. 1852 to A. D. 1852; I was residing at Cedar City at the time of the massacre at Mountain Meadows, in said Territory of Utah; I had heard that a company of emigrants was on its way from Salt Lake Utah; I had heard that a company of emigrants was on its way from Salt Lake City, bound for Galifornia; said company arrived at Cedar City, tarried there one day, and passed on for California; after said company had left Cedar City, the militia was called out for the purpose of committing acts of hostility against them; said call was a regular military call from the superior officers to the subordinate officers and privates of the regiment at Cedar City and vicinity, composing part of the militia of the Territory of Utah; I do not recollect the number of Utah; I do not recollect the number of the regiment. I was at that time the Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at Cedar City; Isaac C. Haight was President over said church C. Haight was Premient over said church at Cedar City, and the southern settlements in said Territory of Utah; my position as Bishep is subordinate to that of said President. W. H. Dame was President of said church at Parowan, in said Iron county. Said Dame was also colonel of said regiment; and Isaac C. Haight was lieutenant colonel of said regiment, and said John D. Lee of Herriment, and said John D. Lee of Herriment. regiment, and said John D. Lee, of Harmony, in said from county, was Major.
Said regiment was duly ordered to muster, armed and equipped as the law directs and prepared for field operations.
I had no command nor office in said regiment in the expedition which resulted in said company's being massacred at the Mountain Mealows in said County of Iron. About four days after said company of emigrants had left Cedar City that regiment, and said John D. Lee, of Harny of emigrants had left Cedar City that portion of said regiment then mustered at Cedar City took up its line of march in pursuit of them. About two days after said company had left Cedar City, Lieutenant Colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my pursuit of the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in my present the colonel I. C. Haight expressed in the c pressed in my presence a desire that said their way in peace; but afterwards he told me toat he had orders to kill all of said company of emigrants except the little children. I do not know whether had beadquarters meant the regiment headquarters at Parowan or the head-quarters of the Commander in Chief at East Lake City. When the said company got to Iron Creek, about twenty mites from Cedar City, Captain Joel White started for the Pinto Creek Settlement, started for the Pinto Creek Settlement, through which the said company would pass for the purpose of influencing the people to permit said company to pass on their way in peace. I asked and obtained permission of said White to go with him to aid him in trying to save life. When we got about three miles from Cedar City, we met Major J. D. Lee, who asked us where we were going. I replied that we were going to try to Lee, who asked us where we were going. I replied that we were going to try to prevent the killing of the emigrants. Lee replied: 'I have something to say about that.' Lee was at that time on his way to Parowan, the headquarters of Colonel Dame. Said White and I went to Pinto Creek; remained there one wight, and the next day returned to Coder.

not been altogether successful, upon which Lieutenant Colonel Haight or-down their arms, came out from their camp, and delivered themselves up to the said Lee. The women and children were then, by ordes of said Lee, separated from the men and marched ahead of the men. After the said emigrants had marched about half mile towards Cedar City the order was to shoot them down. At that time said Lee was at the head of the column. I was in the rear I did the column. I was in the rear. I did not hear Lee give the order to fire, but heard it from the under officers as it was passed down the column. The emigrante were then and there shot down, except seventeen little children, which I imme seventeen little children, which I immediately took into my charge. I do not know the total number of said company as I did not stop to count the dead. I immediately put the little children in baggage-wagons belonging to the regiment and took them to Hamlin's ranch, and from there to Cedar City, and procured them homes among the people. J. and from there to Cedar City, and pro-cared them homes among the people. J. Willis and B. Murdy assisted me in tak-ing charge of said children. On the evening of the massagre W. H. Dame-and Lieut, I. C. Haight came to Hamlin's where I had the said children, and fell into a dispute, in the course of which said Haight told Colonel Dame that if he was going to report of the billion of was going to report of the killing of said emigrants he should not have ordered it done. I do not know when or where said troops were disbanded. About two weeks after said massacre occurred said Major Lee (who was also Indian agent) went to Salt Lake City and, as I believe, reported said fight and its results to the reported said agat and its results to the commander-in-chief; I was not present at either of the before mentioned coun-cils, nor at any council connected with the aforesaid military operations or with said company. I gave no orders except to those connected with the saving of the children, and those after the massacre had occurred, and said orders were given had occurred, and said orders were given as bishop and not in a military sense. At the time of the firing of the first volley I discharged my piece. I did not fire afterwards, though several subsequent volleys were fired. After the first fire was delivered I set about saving the children. I commenced to cather up the children. I commenced to gather up the children before the firing had ceased. I children before the firing had ceased. I have made the foregoing statements before the above entitled Court for the reason that I believe that I would be assassinated should I attempt to make the same before any court in the Territory of Utah. After said Lee returned from Salt Lake City, as aforesaid, said Lee told me that he had reported fully to the President, meaning the commander. Lee told me that he may reported fully to the President, meaning the commander-n-chief, the fight at Mountain Meadows and the killing of said emigrants. Brig-ham Young was at the time commander-in-chief of the Militia of the Territory of Utah; and further deponent saith not. (Signed) Pailip Klinorn Smith. not been altogether successful, upon which Lieutenant Colonel Haight ordered out a reinforcement. At this time I was ordered out by Captain John M. Higby who ordered me to muster 'armed and equipped as the law directs.' It was a matter of life or death to me to muster or not, and I mustered with the reinforcing troops. It was at this time that Lieutenant Colonel Haight said to me that it was the orders from headquarters that all but the little children were to be killed. Said Haight had at that time just returned from headquarters at Parovan, where a military council had been ...d. There had been a like council held at Parowan previous to that, at which were present Colonel Dame, Lieutenant Colonel I. C. Haight and Major John D. Lee. The result of this first council was the calling out of said regiment for the purpose already stated. The reinforcement aloresaid was marched to the Mountain Meadows, and there formed a junction with the main body. Major Lee massed all the troops at a spring and made a speech to them, saying that his orders from 'headquarters were to kill the entire company except the ameli children.' I was not in the ranks at that time, but on one side talking to a man named Slade, and could not have seen a paper in Maj. Lee's hands. Lee then sent a flag of truce to the emigrant camp, offering said emigrants that "if thay laid down their arms he would protect them." They accordingly laid W. K.
